Mellitech Privacy Policy

Mellitech may collect and retain basic contact information (such as name, e-mail, name of company) which you provide via mellitech.com and other means such as letters sent to Mellitech. Such data might be automatically processed in accordance with French law relative to the protection of private personal data – French Law # 78-17 of 6 January 1978 pertaining to IT, databases and privacy protection.

According to Article 29 of the above-mentioned law, Mellitech undertakes to take all the necessary steps to safeguard the information in its possession, in particular to prevent that it be distorted, damaged or communicated to any third party. The persons having accepted to provide their personal information have a right of access, modification and deletion of their data which they can exercise by contacting Mellitech at the above address. Personal data might be kept by Mellitech for a maximum of 3 years.

About the Use of Personal Information

Mellitech intends to exclusively use the information collected to communicate better with its customers, first and foremost for the order they have placed. Mellitech will not send any unsolicited e-mails for any marketing purpose.

Non Disclosure to Third Parties

Mellitech will not willingly provide the personal information to third parties. Exceptional legal circumstances beyond the control of Mellitech might force the company to disclose personal data (e.g. in the event of government or court order). The information collected by Mellitech will only be accessed by Mellitech staff only when necessary.
